Experience

Recent Projects

Searchy Search: This full-stack web application is an internal search engine for a software sales role. This app is built with Ruby on Rails, uses Devise for authentication and PostgreSQL to hold user data and aid in search queries.

Home Base: Single page productivity app designed to help organize tasks, news information and serve as a one stop shop for improving efficiency. Uses React hooks, MaterialUI and pulls JSON from polygon.io and the free-news api.

UrbanMoon: Responsive React app designed to provide current, local weather conditions. App uses geolocation with user permission, Bootstrap 4 for style and requests JSON from the openweathermapAPI.
